(P S Cheng (Ms))
for Commissioner of Customs & Excise

Explanatory Notes

- (1) Making a claim to the Commissioner of Customs & Excise will not lead to an automatic return of the item(s). Where a valid notice of claim is received, the Commissioner will file an application to court for the forfeiture of the item(s). The court will fix a date for the hearing of such application and will issue a summons to the claimant requiring him to attend the hearing if he is not the defendant in the related criminal proceedings. The result of the application will be determined by the court. In the case where the claimant is the defendant in the related criminal proceedings and there is no other claimant, on an application made in that behalf by the Commissioner, the court may hear the forfeiture application immediately following the criminal proceedings.
- (2) If no notice of claim in writing has been given to the Commissioner of Customs & Excise within the stipulated period of time, the item(s) shall be forfeited forthwith to the Government.
- (3) Where a claimant does not have a permanent address in Hong Kong, he shall nominate a solicitor qualified to practise under the Legal Practitioners Ordinance (Cap. 159), by including in the notice of claim to the Commissioner of Customs & Excise the name and address of the solicitor who is authorized to accept service on his behalf in relation to any forfeiture proceedings. If no such name and address of a solicitor is included in the notice of claim, it shall be regarded as if no notice had been given.
