Customs and Excise Department
Post-Secondary Student Summer Internship Programme 2024

Allowance:

HK$11,200 per month

Terms of Appointment:

Summer interns are engaged under non-civil service appointment. Internship period is between mid-June and July 2024 for approximately 6 weeks. Summer interns are normally required to work 44 hours per week.

(Summer interns may be required to work outside normal office hours, on weekends and holidays in the light of service needs.)

Fringe Benefits:

Summer interns are eligible for rest days, statutory holidays (or substituted holidays), general holidays and sickness day, where appropriate, in accordance with the provisions of the Employment Ordinance. They are subject to the Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme Ordinance.

General Notes:

- (a) Candidates must be permanent residents of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region at the time of appointment unless specified otherwise.
- (b) Candidates must currently be enrolled in full-time degree courses of postsecondary institutions locally or overseas.
- (c) The entry pay, terms of appointment and conditions of service to be offered are subject to the provisions prevailing at the time the offer of appointment is made.
- (d) Non-civil service vacancies are not posts on the civil service establishment. Candidates appointed are not on civil service terms of appointment and conditions of service. Candidates appointed are not civil servants and will not be eligible for posting, promotion or transfer to any posts in the Civil Service.
- (e) Where a large number of candidates meet the specified entry requirements, the recruiting department may devise shortlisting criteria to select the better qualified candidates for further processing. In these circumstances, only shortlisted candidates will be invited to attend the Group Interview.
- (f) It is Government policy to place people with a disability in appropriate jobs wherever possible. If a disabled candidate meets the entry requirements, he/she will be invited to attend the Group Interview without being subject to further shortlisting. Applicants who have declared disabilities found suitable for appointment may be given an appropriate degree of preference over other applicants whose suitability for appointment is considered comparable to that of the former. The Government policy and other related measures on employment of persons with disabilities are set out in the booklet "Employ People Based on Their Abilities – Application for Government Jobs by Persons with Disabilities" which is available for reference on the Civil Service Bureau's website at <http://www.csb.gov.hk> under "Administration of the Civil Service – Appointments".
- (g) As an Equal Opportunities Employer, the Government is committed to eliminating discrimination in employment. The vacancy advertised is open to all applicants meeting the basic entry requirement irrespective of their disability, sex, marital status, pregnancy, age, family status, sexual orientation and race.
