On 10 October 2023, Hong Kong Customs organized the "Seminar on HKAE0 Programme" at the Customs Headquarters Building. Over 70 members of the Hong Kong-Middle East Business Chamber (HKMEBC) and other related business representatives attended the seminar. Commissioner Ms Louise Ho was also present to meet the participants.

During the seminar, Assistant Commissioner (Excise and Strategic Support) Mr Rudy Hui delivered a welcome speech emphasizing that Hong Kong Customs had established AEO Mutual Recognition Arrangements (MRAs) with 13 economies and was actively expanding the AEO MRA network to include more economies, including Gulf Cooperation Council countries and economies along the Belt and Road Region, to assist local enterprises in exploring overseas business opportunities. Hong Kong Customs' representative also introduced the benefits of the HKAE0 Programme to attract more local traders to participate. Successful applicants can enjoy multiple trade facilitation benefits, strengthening their competitiveness and marketability.
