FTA Scheme

The Customs and Excise Department (C&ED) launched the Free Trade Agreement Transshipment Facilitation Scheme (the FTA Scheme) on 20 December 2015. This voluntary scheme aims to enrich the facilitation service provided under the ECFA and facilitate more transshipment cargo in Hong Kong to enjoy preferential tariff of concerned importing countries / region through the provision of Customs supervision services and issuance of "Certificate of Non-manipulation".

Scope of Service

The service of the FTA Scheme covers transshipment cargo in Hong Kong under the free trade agreements and preferential trade agreement signed by the Mainland of China with other countries / region. It covers:

Transshipment cargo in Hong Kong heading for the Mainland of China from the following places:

Taiwan, Korea, Australia, Brunei, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam, Pakistan, Iceland, Switzerland, Chile, Costa Rica, Peru, New Zealand, Bangladesh, India, Sri Lanka, Mongolia, Georgia, Japan, Mauritius, Nicaragua and beneficiary countries under the Special Preferential Tariff Treatment to the Least Developed Countries (LDCs)¹.

Transshipment cargo in Hong Kong heading for the following places from the Mainland of China:

Taiwan, Korea^(Note) and Australia.

Note: Korea Customs Service accepts traders to use the "Certificate of Non-manipulation" issued by C&ED to apply for preferential tariff under the Asia-Pacific Trade Agreement, the China-Korea Free Trade Agreement or the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement.

Submission of Application

Under normal circumstances, application should generally be submitted to C&ED at least one calendar day before the arrival of the consignment.

Method 1. Email: fta_china_application@customs.gov.hk

(for transshipment cargo to the Mainland of China)
